Chatting with Principal Willie

Summer is quickly approaching! May is a very busy month in school. Most classes have a variety of activities planned to end the school year. We do our very best to keep calendars updated. With so many activities happening in such a short time, it is extremely important that we have a plan and share it with others. Please check with us if you have any questions.

During the summer months, families become very busy with their activities. We have vacations, sports tournaments, and camping happening all summer. Have fun! Take some time to relax! With that being said, I would encourage parents to create a plan for their children that includes reading and some math practice. We often share statistics about the benefits of reading 20 minutes a day. At the start of the school year, many students are slow to remember what they have done in math from the previous year. Sometimes this phenomenon is referred to as the summer slide. Planning some light academic work each day will give your student a head start in the year to come.

Announcements:

We will not be sending teacher assignments home with students on the last day. I know that is a change from the past. As parents, you can find your child's assignment on the Portal on August 15th. The main reason that we are not sending them home is the possibility of change. Last summer we registered more than 40 students in August. If we have a similar experience this year, it could mean adding teachers to the faculty which would mean changing classroom assignments. The preliminary lists are finished. I am sorry to say that we will not take any more teacher requests. Changing one student could require the change of several students. Our faculty work very hard on the lists to ensure that each student has the best placement possible while taking into account the parent requests that we did receive and each child's needs. Please be patient with us as we continue to work through the growth in the community.

The end is in sight. Stay in the race with us until we all reach the finish line.
